AUGUST 15 & 16 AGILITY TRIAL WRAP UP

by Lori Jackson

The dog days in August returned to the Petaluma fairgrounds on Saturday and Sunday, August 15 & 16. It was close to 100 degrees both days—cool early in the morning but by 10:00 the heat had risen. We were all happy when a breeze came up in the afternoons.

Thanks to Mary, Margie, and Karen who loaded the ribbons and club equipment on Friday to take to Petaluma Saturday morning. They also set up tables and chairs, and organized the agility ribbons early on Saturday.

Thanks to Steph, Toby, and Michael Bunch for unloading the U-Haul truck and helping in the rings Saturday morning. Thank you to Steph who helped canopy-challenged me unload the canopies for hospitality and also for helping with our dogs!

Thanks to Linda Wargo for helping in the rings Saturday & Sunday in the extreme heat. Thanks to Charlie & Christy for also helping in the rings in the heat and helping set up

Saturday morning and then taking down the rings on Sunday. Many thanks to Stefanie for also helping in the rings and taking down the equipment on Sunday plus helping take down hospitality.

Thank you to Sue and Linda L. for a wonderful raffle after doing such a good job for the obedience trial. Sue did a great job on the J & J jump raffle. We made $133 from tickets sold. Thank you Christina for helping Sue on the raffle and Karen with hospitality.

One of our hardworking club members, Margie Vulk put in tickets on Sunday afternoon and won the J & J Jump! I was happy for her.

With the sweltering heat, Gerry & Linda L. tirelessly went from the jumpers ring to the standard ring; timing and scribing on both days. A special thanks to Linda for getting here on Sunday due to the traffic problems she had. She still stayed all day through the heat and then helped take down the club area for hospitality, ribbons, and the raffle.

Then she helped Margie and Mary take the club equipment back to Napa.

Judge Debbie Wheeler was marvelous in the rings, barely taking a break, going from one ring to the next. She was telling people to be kind to their dogs; she was very understanding about the dogs slowing down in the heat, not staying on the table or not paying attention to their handlers.

My energizer rabbit, Karen can wear out but she was there Friday helping at the club, spending almost all Friday night organizing hospitality and loading both our Subaru and the U-Haul. In Petaluma she organized breakfast & lunch for both days and on Sunday picked up pizzas for lunch from two different locations. I can never do anything, including the agility trial, without Karen's to-the-extreme hard work and support.

Thank you to Gerry, Anita, and Bobbie, for the diet sodas, and Jim Spiva, Laura Ecklin, Lynda Rhyno, Marilane Bergfelt, and Debbie Payton for the cash donations. With so much gratitude for the dedicated, exhausted, and much appreciated club members who worked both days;; Christy, Charlie, Sue, Christina, Gerry, Lynda, Stefanie, and the one agility committee member, Mary, who was willing to help from the beginning and gave me so much help and advice.

Penny thanks the club for giving her a chance to run, jump, and weave. She loves agility as much as I do. Again, thanks to all.

CANINE MUSICAL FREESTYLE

by Judy Gamet - Dogs Can Dance, LLC

Sometimes the most inspiring events take you totally by surprise. Held up by a slow moving freight train, what could have been a frustrating delay turned into a blessing not only for me and my "pack" but for every dog whose life I've come in contact with. Alongside the train tracks were half a dozen horses playing in a pasture. One horse would dart into the group, turn, and dash back out as the others followed. To witness the beauty that was inherent in the power, grace, and agility of these animals was breathtaking! In over thirty years of teaching dance to humans, I had never seen a more beautiful "dance."

Have you ever sat near the conformation ring at a dog show and found that you couldn't take your eyes off of a particular dog as they flashed elegantly around the ring? How about the rally obedience ring as a team, so in sync with each other that the entire course flowed flawlessly? How about the agility competition where the dog was so exact and in tune with the handlers that the handler seemed to have disappeared and all you saw was the magnificent performance of the dog? These brilliant moments you are witnessing, in the heart of the dog, is true dance!

Canine Musical Freestyle is not about what flashy costume you can wear as the handler, not about what wild tricks you can get your dog to perform to music, not even about the dance steps you create for yourself while your dog stands before you... quite the contrary. Canine Musical Freestyle, unlike what is often portrayed in the media, is defined by Dogs Can Dance, LLC as: "each performance should honor and showcase the dog by emphasizing the beauty and grace of the dog's natural movements in a manner reflective of the musicality of the chosen accompaniment. Each performance is a tribute to and demonstration of the teamwork and relationship between the dog and handler."

The benefits of Canine Musical Freestyle can be seen physically, mentally, and emotionally in the lives of these lucky dogs.

Why should you consider the sport of Canine Musical Freestyle? Dogs can Dance uses only movements offered by dogs naturally, and each dog is an individual. No moves are mandatory. Flexibility, agility, and strength is increased by working on movement phrases which travel forward, backward, even sideways, turning, spinning, working both the right and left sides evenly. Basic obedience is sharpened because you are practicing those foundation exercises in a spirit of fun with music. Many handlers once turned off by the demands of traditional obedience have found their skills are so improved; they once again are considering obedience competition! Becoming a good freestyle team does require practice so that endurance and focus improve for the handler as well as the dog. Lastly, the improvement in self-confidence for the dogs is amazing. In this sport, the dogs have at least fifty percent of the say when creating a routine. They often offer movement behaviors and movement phrases that are much more creative than the human partner could have thought of! This sport is the only dog sport that allows the dog to participate as an equal partner in the creative process.

No moves are mandatory. Flexibility, agility, and strength is increased by working on movement phrases which travel forward, backward, even sideways, turning, spinning, working both the right and left sides evenly.

The benefits of Canine Musical Freestyle can be seen physically, mentally, and emotionally in the lives of these lucky dogs. Walking is a great exercise for both dogs and humans, but because it only uses a certain set of muscles in one manner, it lacks the full range of motion. Freestyle utilizes muscle groups that perform movements in many different directions so the entire body is toned. Freestyle also encourages a balanced frame, working the dog in both "heel position" and "right position." Don't let anyone fool you, the handlers also receive a great workout besides walking forward. The handler will use pace changes, walking backwards, sideways, and turning. What better way to condition yourself than putting on some music and training with your dog?

The mental benefits of freestyle are unlimited. I have witnessed very shy or challenged dogs gain tremendous self-confidence from participating in freestyle classes and demonstrations. Darcy, a very handsome black lab/golden retriever mix was told he would never be able to go out in public due to his fears and shyness. After a few years of participating in class, he performed a solo before 500 people at the Dressage in the Wine Country event. He also continued to enjoy participating in agility and became a tremendous obedience "heeling" dog who also succeeded in the sport of Rally Obedience. His owner expressed the concern that Darcy, having been raised with his female golden litter mate since 7 weeks old, seemed to be more bonded to his sister than to his human. Freestyle changed that relationship.

Emotionally, the bond that is created from the fun in freestyle is like no other. Candy's handler states, "My life was completely changed the first time I ever saw freestyle. I have always been very close to my dogs and figured I had the best relationship possible. But I had no idea! The depth of trust, attention, confidence, and joy we have developed as a team, since first starting to dance, has overwhelmingly amazed me. It is so satisfying to see how happy my dogs are to "work" with me and show off their grace and beauty."

No matter what condition your dog is in today, take those steps to increase their activity and joy. My own dog, Bella, a Rottweiler, suffered from obesity and hip dysplasia when she came into my life at age 6. She dropped 20 pounds, rebuilt her body and life. She went through several lifesaving surgeries around age 10. Most surgeons would not have considered performing these surgeries except that Bella was in such great physical condition. Bella continued to teach by my side until she passed away at age 14.

A new beginning class will start in January. Be sure to contact me if you'd like to be on the priority list to register. I will send out reminders toward the end of the year.

Our NEWEST Trainers:

Donna Golemon

I have been training dogs for about 35 years. I am a past member of the club, which includes being a president, treasurer and a head dog trainer for several years. I left the club to continue training dogs with a friend. We started our own business, Tandem Dog Sports, wherein we trained agility, tracking and started nosework. During this period, we helped many people put agility titles on their dogs. At Tandem Dog Sports, we believed in building teamwork between a dog and handler. When my partner moved out of state, we closed the business.

I have trained my dogs and many others in a variety of dog sports including obedience, agility, tracking, confirmation, rally and nosework.

I have titles on my dogs in many venues—too numerous to list. I currently have three dogs: a Austrian Shepherd, Inc, who is 10 years old; a Border Collie, Ube, who is six years old and a Border Collie, Nickel, who is six months old.

My Dogs

I believe in positive training methods and positive does not mean permissive. I have trained dogs using many methods over the past years. A lot of my dog training is done through game playing.

My dogs love to train with me because to them training is play and play is training. I take online dog training classes and have attended numerous seminars over the years. I believe you should constantly be learning because new ideas pop up all the time.

I currently work at the veterans home of California in Yountville in the information services department. I have been there for 34 years.

The bottom line is I love training dogs!

At NVDTTC: Donna is approved for Puppy, Adolescent Dog, GM1 & GM2, plus advanced classes like agility. She just finished co-teaching Puppy on Wednesday nights with Marilane in Session 5. As her schedule opens up, we are looking forward to seeing her support our entry level classes plus expand intermediate and advanced level classes.

Dogs in Pools

Erin Shea, AKC Web

On a scorching day, a dip in a swimming pool can look extremely appealing to humans and animals alike, but is it safe to let your dog swim in a chlorine pool?

Although the chlorine levels in a normal swimming pool are safe for humans to swim in, and occasionally ingest, dogs may be more susceptible to effects of chlorine because their nose, eyes, and ears are more sensitive. Don't let your dog drink from the pool—even though it may seem like a large water bowl to them—have fresh water available.

If your dog does go for a swim, make sure to spray them down after to wash off the chemicals from the pool and give their ears a gentle dab with a towel to dry the insides to avoid infections—this is especially important for dogs with floppy ears.

Also, make swimming a pleasant experience for your dog by allowing them to take their time entering the water and praising them each step of the way. Never throw a dog into a pool. Toss a toy into the pool or escort your dog over the side to encourage them to enter the water. Many dogs are natural swimmers, so they do not need to be taught how to swim. However, dogs may panic when trying to exit the pool for the first time since they are not used to using ladders or steps made for humans, so help teach your dog how to use these ways to safely get out. Never leave your dog unsupervised in a pool, they may need assistance if they are in trouble and may not be able to bark to get attention.
