CANINE GOOD CITIZEN

American Kennel Club's Canine Good Citizen (CGC) program is designed to encourage responsible dog ownership and recognize dogs who have good manners at home and in the community.

The program is open to all dogs, purebred and mixed breed. There are no age minimums or limits for participating in the program.

On the last class, the official CGC evaluation will be offered.

Dogs who successfully complete the 10 part skills test can earn a certificate and apply for an official American Kennel Club title.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of Good Manners 2 or equivalent class.
